PARSON BROWNLOW AGAIN IN THE FIELD.

This traitor to his country is stumping the North and visiting his spite against the South before large audiences, who loudly applaud his vulgar expressions. A short time since he announced that he would address a public meeting in the M. E. Wesleyan Methodist Church in Cincinnati; from the 12th...

"So turn all the South, and pursue Jeff Davis to every country. So that Yankeedom said in pantheon shall be honored; and his last behemoth not shall be saved."

He spoke accordingly, and the Northern papers tell us that [illegible] and low-lived talk [illegible]

Among other things, he said that all "the slaves were emancipated by the Proclamation of Emancipation on the South[illegible]
